Are you always acting out? Do people often tell you to stop being so dramatic? Are you sometimes a little too good at playing pretend?

If so, then maybe you were born to be AN ACTOR!

In this class you'll learn the fundamental skills and methodologies of acting, including:

- Improvisation
- Write & Perform Sketch Comedy
- Stage/Camera Awareness
- Body and Breath Techniques

Throughout the semester, students will sharpen their talents through improv games, monologues, and scene studies. Students will also have the opportunity to learn more about making a career in film or on stage.

This is a class recommended for students in grades 2-5.

When: Tuesdays, 3:15 to 4:15
January 8-May 21

Where: PE Room

Tuition: $180/semester
